Ronald and Agnes First working session at the office of World Dynamic's of Young People

In the afternoon of this Thursday, June 24th, 2010, Ronald, Agnes and Zora were welcomed at the headquarters of World Dynamic's of Young People for the first ever working session.

The meeting lasted more than two hours during which each participant freely expressed his expectations and some materials presented.

Subsequently, the premises were inspected and Ronald Office shown to him. Until this office is equipped, Ronald is already well integrated into the working team.

The entire team is ready to work together hand in hand.
